

Cruz Ortiz is a well-known American Contemporary Artist originally from Houston

He is one of the most prominent Chicano artists of his generation

His style uses bold designs to convey what it means to live in the American Southwest

His work has been featured in the San Antonio Museum of Art, the Contemporary Art Museum in Houston and even the Louvre in Paris

Inspired by the story of Jessica and the Dual Generation Initiative

The butterflies featured are native to San Antonio and represent Jessica's transformational growth

Multi-lingual to represent the San Antonio community