

Kim Lubel

Kim is the former Chairman and CEO of CST Brands, Inc., a Fortune 250 North American convenience and fuel retailer that was acquired in 2017. Prior to her role at CST Brands, Kim spent over 15 years with Valero Energy Corporation, including six years as Valero's Executive Vice President and General Counsel. Today, Kim serves on the boards of directors of Westlake Corporation (NYSE:WLK), Arcosa Inc. (NYSE:ACA), and PBF Energy, Inc. (NYSE:PBF), as well as the boards of Southwest Research, Inc., and Inspire Trust Co. In addition, Kim serves on the boards of United Ways of Texas, Miami University (Ohio) Foundation, and the UT Law School Foundation. Kim also mentors executive leaders in both private and public companies.

Kim graduated from the University of Texas School of Law in 1991, and earned her Master's in International Relations from Baylor University, and a B.A. in Spanish and a B.A. in International Studies from Miami University.

Among Kim's professional recognitions, Kim has twice been named to Fortune's 50 Most Powerful Women in Business list (2013 & 2015) and was named Executive Leader of the Year in 2014 by the San Antonio Business.

Kim began volunteering in San Antonio shortly after moving her family to San Antonio in 1997. Valero provided Kim with her first introduction to United Way of San Antonio & Bexar County through Valero's long-time support for UWSA. Her nonprofit leadership journey began with service on the board of directors of San Antonio-based Family Services Association. Following her board service with Family Services, Kim began volunteering with UWSA, initially through the Targeted Community Impact work undertaken by UWSA in the early 2000s. From there, Kim joined the UWSA Board of Directors, serving in a variety of roles, including chair of the Community-wide Campaign and then Chairman of the UWSA Board for two years. While serving on the UWSA Board, Kim joined the board of United Ways of Texas, the statewide agency that provides advocacy and capacity building for local United Ways across the State of Texas. Kim is now wrapping up her second year as Chairman of the Board of United Ways of Texas. Although Kim moved to Houston in 2022, she remains connected to, and supportive of, UWSA and Women United.
