

Serving Those Who Served

MISSION UNITED

MISSION UNITED helps active-duty service members, veterans and their families find the support they need. Whether you need help with housing, food, employment, finances, or other challenges, we connect you with the right resources and help you understand your options. MISSION UNITED also offers several programs designed to strengthen military and veteran families and help them build a more stable future.

SUPPORTING MILITARY FAMILIES

Military Dual Generation

A two-generation approach that supports both parents and children ages 0-10 years old. Parents can access education and workforce training while children receive support for healthy development, child care and school readiness.

KLRN Military Family Play & Learn

8-module program that provides fun, hands-on early learning activities for young children ages 0-10, while connecting families to helpful community resources.

Strong Families Strong Forces (SFSF)

8-session class that supports military families with children through military-related transitions.

- Helps families navigating deployments, PCS, ETS, retirement, etc.
- Strengthens the family's communication, connection and co-parenting skills
- Supports military-families with children 0-17

MEETING MILITARY NEEDS

United Way 211 Helpline

When an active duty, veteran or military family member calls 211, they will be connected with a MISSION UNITED Navigator for military-specific resources.

- Military Navigators are experienced with military-related community resources
- Resources and benefit information based on branch of service
- Assistance includes behavioral health, education, employment, financial, rent, utility assistance and more
